

CJHA Honour Roll Coleman Nixdorff

Coleman Nixdorff, son of Nels & Terri Nixdorff, was born in Calgary, Alberta and is the youngest of three siblings.

Coleman is working on a Bachelor of Science in Animal Science at the University of Saskatoon. Coleman has grown up on the family ranch - YV Ranch - and has been a very active member in the Alberta Junior Hereford Association (AJHA) since 2004, serving on its Executive board since 2013. This year, he serves at AJHA President.

In his involvement with the Canadian Junior Hereford Association (CJHA), Coleman is actively involved showing and promoting Hereford and Hereford-influence cattle. He has attended five Bonanzas and 10 provincial junior shows.

Coleman has been a member of the Irricana 4-H Beef and Multi Club for 9 years and completed sheep, stock dog, beef, heifer and cow & calf projects. He has held many executive positions and has won many awards and one scholarship through 4-H, including Public Speaking, the 4-H Platinum Award and many championships at 4-H On Parade. He has raised two charity steers through 4-H - one for STAR air ambulance and one for Ronald McDonald House. He raised a total of $10,000 for these charities.

Coleman has shown YV Ranch cattle at the Calgary Bull Sale, the Medicine Hat Bull Sale and Pen Show, at Farm Fair, Agribition and at the Hardisty Field day.

Coleman is an academic achiever as well, receiving the Scott Rairdon Memorial Scholarship, the Airdire Agricultural Scholarship and the CJHA-KGF Future of the Breed Scholarship. At university, Coleman is a member of the Agricultural Students' Association, the Animal Science Club and the Stockmans Club.

Congratulations Coleman!

 Hereford